

Childrens Department.

SULLIVAN, OHIO, Nov. 1st, 1894.

DEAR EDITOR:—It is very nice weather here now. There is prayer meeting to-night, and I expect to go. My sister will be eighteen next Monday. They took a vote on closing Sunday school, and will last two weeks yet. I got my other letter in last month's late, that I thought I would get it on time this month. My aunt and I are staying alone now. My uncle has gone down to my aunt's who is a widow.

TWELVE MILE, IND., Nov. 5th, 1894.

DEAR EDITOR:—I will write another letter for the EVANGELIST so I will not be forgotten. As I failed to send a letter last month, I will write two this month. Since my last writing the Brethren at Corinth have organized a King's Children Society of about thirty-five members. It is divided into two classes, a senior and junior class. I belong to the junior class. Brother Swihart was with us to-day and gave us two good sermons. I will ask a question: What man was taken through the roof to get to Christ.

CLYDE A. MOSS.

TWELVE MILE, IND., Nov. 2nd, 1894.

DEAR EDITOR:—I see the children's letters in the EVANGELIST which I read and for the first time I will pen a short letter for the paper. I attend Sunday school pretty well. We have been to Ohio to visit, and we got home last Friday a week; then on Monday, 22nd, papa started to the conference at Elkhart, Ind., and got home last Friday at noon. To-morrow papa is going to Logansport to get our preacher, Mr. J. H. Swihart. Next Sunday is our preaching day. We have good meetings and have got a good Sunday school; Mr. Ed Thomas, president of our King's Children Society, is our teacher. Mr. George Willson is our Sunday school superintendent.

I will close for this time asking you to correct all mistakes and hope this will not find its way to the waste basket. This is my first letter, you may hear from me again.

Yours truly,
SADIE L. FORD.

NORCATOR, KAN., Oct. 29th, 1894.

DEAR EDITOR:—This is my first letter to the new editor. Please excuse my letter for being so late this month as I have been waiting to see the other editor's name in the paper. We had a good rain the 27th of this month and it has been cold since. I go to Sunday school every Sunday; I have not missed but two Sundays this year. My lesson on Sunday was about "The Paralytic Healed." I will answer Eva Miller's question. Christ's beloved disciple was John. I will close. Good-bye.

MAY HOLBEN.

Your answer is correct. We should all try to be his beloved disciples.

CENTERVILLE, IOWA, Oct., 27th, 1894.

DEAR EDITOR:—I thought I would write again for the EVANGELIST. I had forgotten I hadn't written this month. I am going to school. Mr. Frank Shane is our teacher. We like him very well. They are going to hold their communion meeting at the New Hope church. I will ask some questions: When was Noah born and when did he die? How many different kinds of religious denominations are there in the world? Good-bye.

CLYDE STICKLER.

MT. BLANCHARD, OHIO, Oct. 28th, '94.

DEAR EDITOR:—As I sit here this pleasant Sabbath evening, I think of God and his wondrous works. I hope to gain the prize, so this letter is for January. My two little neighbor girls were here to-day, and my little nephew was here and we had a nice time. My aunt was here last night. I will ask a question: How many chapters in the Bible?

CARRIE HARMON.

NORTH ENGLISH, IOWA, Nov. 6th, '94.

DEAR EDITOR:—Girl is found twice in the Bible. See Joel iii, 3; Zech. viii, 5. I will answer Edith Lichty's question: Adam was forbidden to eat of the tree of life. See Gen. ii, 9. We had our communion meeting last Sunday night. We had a good meeting. I will close.

Yours truly,
ADA SANGER.

FALLS CITY, NEB., Nov. 5th, 1894.

DEAR EDITOR:—So will it be at the end of the world, when that great preacher comes again. But he won't preach to the people in the humble way that he did then. For he will come in the glory of his Father. And then he shall reward every one according to our works. He says there will be some people that will not taste death. I would like to be one of them.

Yours respectfully,
ADA JUDY.

STOCKPORT, IND., Oct. 30, 1894.

DEAR BRETHREN OF THE EVANGELIST:—I was just reading the kind editor's remarks, and kindly inviting the children to contribute to their page, and write something of interest. I hardly know where to commence, as we have so many things to be thankful for and have been having such beautiful weather, which makes one always feel good for which we are thankful. We have had company from Pleasant Hill, Ohio—Mr. and Mrs. J. Miller. We are always glad to receive our friends. Our school is flourishing under control of Mr. Chas. Stover of Eaton, Ind. I will close for fear of the waste basket, as I did not see my last in print.

Yours for success.

IVY RENCH.

We do not remember seeing your last letter, but surely we will not throw the letters of these sweet little girls and boys in the waste basket. We are glad that you are learning to write for the paper. Ed.

AKRON, IND., Oct. 28th, 1894.

DEAR EDITOR:—I will write a letter for the one I missed and tell you about my visit at Huntington. The city is all torn up; they are putting in sewers. Some places they cannot use gas. I went to the fair one afternoon; on Sunday we went to the greenhouse. I went to the ice house one day and saw them make ice. I saw lots of Italians at work and heard them talk, but could not understand them.

DESSA SAYGER.

(You certainly had a nice, pleasant time, and we are very glad you enjoyed yourself. Ed.)

AKRON, IND., Oct. 31st, 1894.

DEAR EDITOR:—I am a little lonesome since Sunday school is out. I intend to go to Sunday school at Akron this winter; it is not as far as where I have been going. They have two Sunday schools at Akron, but they are both at the same house. To-night is Hollow eve, but I know my brother Enos is not in mischief, for he is at home working problems.

DESSA SAYGER.

GOOD MEN PROFITABLY EMPLOYED.

"Yes, sir, we have a number of grand, good men working for us, and they are making money, too, doing better for themselves than they could in any other line." That is about the way Mr. B. F. Johnson of the firm B. F. Johnson & Co., Richmond, Va., stated the case in referring to their advertisement for representatives to devote all or part of their time in the interest of their business.

A CHANCE TO MAKE MONEY.

I have had wonderful success selling Dish Washers. Have not made less than $8 any day, and some days $15. Nearly every family buys one. They are cheap, durable, and do the work perfectly. You can wash and dry the dishes for a family in two minutes, without touching your hands to a dish. I believe any lady or gentleman, anywhere, can do as well as I am doing, as I had no experience. Anyone can sell what everyone wants to buy, and every family seems to want a Dish Washer. Write to the Iron City Dish Washer Co., E. E. Pittsburg, Pa. They will send you full particulars and help you as they did me. I do not write my experience boastfully, but because I think it a duty I owe to others in these hard times.
